

About the project

Stories for Wings aims to create an effective method to educate adults in prison, who are often left out of society.

Through an innovative approach, a story-based methodology, the project seeks to promote fundamental values (citizenship, democracy, freedom, inclusion...)

The transformative power of stories can help inmates to reflect on their own experiences, to foster empathy and to help the develop the necessary skills for reintegration.

2024-1-ES01-KA220-ADU-000255317

Project partners

Co-funded by the European Union

Funded by the European Union. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union or the European Education and Culture Executive Agency (EACEA). Neither the European Union nor EACEA can be held responsible for them.

STORIES THAT SEW WINGS

Stories 4 Wings

Target groups

Adult prison educators and trainers

Trained in the story-telling methodology

Inmates

Educational approach that enhances their social and emotional skills

Public administrations and associations

Improve their educational and reintegration program

Objectives

Develop an inclusive and diverse recovery coaching method set for adult educators

Improve adult educators' addiction prevention skills, including holistic recovery and social skills restoration

To provide adult educators with innovative and effective recovery coaching methods to improve adult education quality

Increase access to recovery coaching materials

Values

Resilience

Team working

Ability to cope with social exclusion

Vocational training, profession acquisition

Self-awareness

Active citizenship

Critical thinking

Technology literacy

